Dr. D. Raghavendra Rao.—Yes, and some of them have been carried out.

Mr. K. G. Nayar.—Will the Hon'ble Member please see that other things also are carried out as soon as possible?

Dr. D. Raghavendra Rao.—Yes, it will be done.

Accumulation of wealth—Social menace.

139. Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Will the Government be pleased to state :—

(a) whether they are aware that the accumulation of wealth in the hands of a few has brought into the political arena of this country a fanatic section advocating fantastically primitive reduction of human wants ;

(b) whether they are aware that the causes indicated in (a) have also begotten a section of violent anarchists of political agitators;

(c) whether they are aware that both the classes of social maniacs in (a) and (b) are exploiting the allegation that the present machinery of Government is in alliance with the rich against the poor ;

(d) what programme of constructive work the Government entertain to prevent the social menaces, indicated in (a), (b) and (c) from taking root in the State ?

Mr. T. S. Sesha Ayyar.—(a) No.

(b) No.

(c) No.

(d) The question does not arise in view of the above answers.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—(a) What do you say to Mahatma Gandhi's school of thought ?

President.—It is a matter of opinion.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—But he has answered 'no', 'no'. That means he denies the existence of such things. Is it a fact that such people do not exist ?

Mr. T. S. Sesha Ayyar.—I do not know.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Will the Members be a little more alert about these ?

President.—Any other supplementary question.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—(b) What do you say of Bhagat Singh's school of thought ? Do such people exist ?

Mr. T. S. Sesha Ayyar.—No information.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Will the Members be a little more alert in giving information in future ?
